

ARMY RUGBY
MASTERS XV
President:
General Sir Peter Wall
KCB CBE

Vacancy: Director Army Rugby Masters XV

Responsibilities:

- Director Army Rugby Masters XV
- Member of the ARU Council
- Secure corporate support for the Army Rugby Masters XV
- Army lead for the organisation and management of the Masters rugby Inter-Services events
- Planning and entry to the quadrennial World Masters Games - Rugby Tournament
- Lead for Combined Services Masters rugby XV team

Current Objectives:

- Win the Inter-Service Masters rugby games
- Support Army Community Rugby through provision of administrative, managerial, coaching, and refereeing expertise inherent in the Masters members
- Win the World Masters Games - Rugby Tournament
- Provide support to Enterprise Plc community projects wherever possible
- Coordinate Combined Services Masters rugby team in support of key charity events (Help for Heroes)

Director Attributes:

- Committed and available to attend Masters and ARU events/activities essential (UK based desirable)
- OF4/5 desirable
- Rugby management experience at unit/corps level desirable
- Previous engagement with the Army Masters Rugby (playing or organisational role for key events) desirable
- Knowledge of the current player base desirable
- Knowledge of the South England Masters rugby circuit desirable

The vacant post is to be filled by the end of the Inter-Services season 2010. The ARU will review suitable candidates and nominate a successor as soon as practicable. Any questions or points of clarification should be passed to the current Director Army Rugby Masters XV – Lt Col Hamish Robson (Hamish.Robson285@mod.uk)

Interested parties should submit a short rugby 'CV,' against the criteria detailed above, to Mrs Isobel Camfield at the ARU Office by 1 March 2010 at:

iccamfield@ascb.uk.com
Isobel.camfield613@land.mod.uk